For the past 50 years, the Chandler Public Library has been serving the community as a great place to read, learn, and connect. When the Library opened its doors in 1954, it was located in the building that now houses the Chandler Historical Museum, the circulation was just under 3,000.

The current Downtown library and three branch libraries have a circulation of close to 2.5 million items including books, cd's, video's, periodicals and more. Offering a variety of programs -- from storytime for infants and toddlers, to the City of Readers (CORE) adult education program -- the library provides services, programs and events to more than 1.2 million guests each year. Go to www.chandlerlibrary.org to learn more about the library, programs and upcoming events.

To celebrate the anniversary, the Friends of the Library will host Authors Among Friends at Oakwood Country Club, Saturday, November 6, at 6:30 p.m. Guests will mix and mingle with local authors, enjoy savory treats, bid on specialty baskets and be up close and personal with best-selling author David Baldacci.

Tickets are $40 per person and are available at the Chandler Center for the Arts box office by calling (480) 782-2680. Proceeds will benefit the Friends Foundation—an endowment fund that enriches the library system.
